To Whom This May Concern,

This is in support of Mr. Bongani Mafulela's efforts to obtain a position in your esteemed institution.

I have known Bongani for three years now through the Enactus team at Thompson Rivers and as a personal acquaintance and I feel I can speak on his behalf. Also, as the current President of Enactus Thompson Rivers, a student organization, I have had extensive interactions with him on a several occasions.

As a member of Enactus, Bongani has demonstrated superb skills in digesting materials and has dedicated over 40 hours to the club alone this year. As the President for the student group, Enactus Thompson Rivers, I had the opportunity to interact with Bongani and observe his leadership skills. His efforts strengthened the organization, and have proven himself as a leader.

As a person Bongani is very friendly and amicable. He is fun to work with and he fully understands he responsibilities and delivers more than what is expected of him. He is very focused on whatever is his doing and he doesn't stop until he is happy with the results. He will be very valuable asset for any organization and a very good collegial employee.

If there is anything more you would like to know about Mr. Bongani Mafulela, I will be glad to answer your questions.
